

The Department of State refers the Embassy of the Republic of Korea to the Agreement between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Korea with respect to the transfer of certain nuclear technologies between the United States and the Republic of Korea in the course of the Joint Fuel Cycle Study, effected by an exchange of diplomatic notes at Washington on July 19 and July 22, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as “the Nuclear Technology Transfer Agreement”).

The Department of State is pleased to inform the Embassy that the Government of the United States of America has completed its internal steps necessary for entry into force of the Nuclear Technology Transfer Agreement. The Nuclear Technology Transfer Agreement will therefore enter into force on the date of a note from the Embassy, on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Korea, indicating that it has completed its internal steps necessary for entry into force.
